Electronic Permitting Operator Administrator Registration Form

Purpose

The purpose of the Operator Administrator Registration Form is to identify one individual per Operator whose name will be deemed to be on each OCD permit or form filed electronically by that organization.

This form also identifies one Operator Administrator who will authorize users to submit electronic permits or forms for the organization. OCD will contact the Operator Administrator with instructions.

The Operator Administrator Registration Form must be signed by the president or a vice president of the corporation or by an employee of the corporation duly authorized (by corporate resolution or power of attorney) to approve and sign an Oil Conservation Form.

The signature of the Operator Administrator affixed to this form shall be deemed to appear on all electronically filed forms, as if actually so appearing.

If the Operator Administrator leaves the employment of the Operator or ceases to be authorized to sign such forms for it, the Operator's authority to file forms electronically shall automatically be terminated until a new Operator Administrator Registration Form is filed for any reason.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

1. Transporter Name Change. The OCD tracks all transporters by their company name. If an approved transporter changes their company name, please register the new company name with the New Mexico Secretary of State, obtain a new Warrant for Transportation Services reflecting the new company name, and reapply with a new Form C-133. Submit a new C-133A along with a PDF of the warrant reflecting the new company name and payment of the $150.00 fee through the OCD Permitting website.
2. Physical Business Address Change – (C-133B). If an approved transporter changes their physical business address, please update this information with the New Mexico Secretary of State and obtain a new Warrant for Transportation Services reflecting the physical business address change, prior to reapplying with the OCD. Please reapply and submit via a C-133B with the updated C-133 along with a PDF of the new warrant both reflecting the physical business address change and payment of the $150.00 fee through the OCD Permitting website. The OCD will update their database to reflect the changes and reissue an approval to the new Form C-133 reflecting the address change. Future contact by the OCD may be necessary and transporter information should be kept current.
3. Cancelling an Existing Approval – (C-133C). If an approved transporter is no longer going to be a hauler in New Mexico, they shall inform the OCD in a letter to remove them from the approved hauler list and submit a C-133C and a PDF of the letter through the OCD Permitting website. No fee payment is required for a cancellation request.

How to apply for a C-133 (Authorization to Move Produced Water in New Mexico)

4. Contact Information Change: If an approved transporter changes their contact mailing address and/or phone number information, please update the appropriate information with the New Mexico Secretary of State, prior to updating your company registration with the OCD. If your company has completed the registration process and has setup your administrator account, as identified in Step 3 of page 1 above, then sign into your account and update the mailing contact information. Once signed in, place the cursor on the Administration option, upper right screen, choose Operator Management, then Address and Contact Information and update the contact information accordingly. If your company does not have an administrator account, then complete the registration process identified in Step 3 of page 1 of this guidance. The contact information can be updated while setting up the administrator account. There is no fee payment to complete this process. Future contact by the OCD may be necessary and transporter information should be kept current.
5. Waste Hauler Permit Number. A permit number is given to approved haulers, but OCD does NOT require the hauling company to label their trucks with this number. The permit number will be noted within the approved e-mail/letter sent to the approved hauler at that time for tracking purposes. To demonstrate compliance and approval pursuant to 19.15.34.17.A NMAC, the transporter shall maintain a photocopy of the approved form C133 in the transporting vehicle.
6. Permit Expiration. An approved C-133 permit does not expire. However, the permit will be no longer valid if a transporter changes their company name and/or business address without reapplying. Transporters may also have their authority cancelled or suspended for violating OCD or other state or federal environmental regulations and/or laws.
