Planned power outage at Energy, Minerals and Natural Resources Department main office

Santa Fe – On Saturday, July 24th the Energy, Minerals and Natural Resources Department’s main office in Santa Fe will undergo a planned power outage that will temporarily impact the website and phone lines. From 8:00 am – 4:00 pm the website will be inaccessible, the phone line will be off through the weekend, we apologize for the inconvenience.

The public will still be able to book State Parks reservations via <https://newmexicostateparks.reserveamerica.com/>.

The power outage is part of upgrades at the Wendell Chino building that includes installation of solar panels and additional energy-efficiency upgrades.
