I read your article in the email I received . I am a non-resident and enjoy the privilege of enjoying your great state. I think if I could buy annual passes it would be very helpful in the long run rather than a day pass everytime I move around the state. It's more convenient. I do understand day passes for people who don't frequent the parks that often. I do a lot of fishing.

So there's my two cents worth. lol Colorado offers a system that when you register your vehicle every year you can opt in for an annual state park pass.
