I just received an email regarding NM Park fees. I loved camping at cottonwood campgrounds navajo lake.... but when you made it all spots must be reserved I quit camping there. For one I hate going online to reserve spots, another all out staters gets the spots, or they are reserved so far out that we cannot get a camping spot. You should return it to first come first get. Then locals can go camping again out there. I'm not the only one who complains about this.... you lost a lot of our extended families business over this.

Thanks Christie
