Hi,

As a NM resident I must admit that day use fees heavily discourage me from experiencing the state parks just 5 min away from my house with my son. I am a huge fan of the elimination of day use fees for NM residents as I would get so much more exposure to the state parks and nature if it were free for me to do so. I would very happily pay higher overnight camping fees to offset the elimination of day use fees for NM residents. Thank you for all the work you do and for keeping our state wonderful!

Eric
