Hello,

I frequently fish the San Juan Quality Waters living in Colorado and traveling there regularly.

I'm concerned with taking away an annual pass. Purchasing an annual pass is affordable for me whereas having to purchase a day use pass every time I go fish, is not only cumbersome, but significantly more expensive, prohibitively so.

Depending on the fee you determine, this could cost me on the order of hundreds of dollars each year versus a much more approachable fee for an annual pass.

I would encourage you to reconsider the revoking of the annual pass. If you need to, increase the price, but don't take away that option completely, please.

Thanks,
Kara Armano
