I understand needing more funds for parks. My only concern is accessibility for those with lower incomes- maybe keeping tent and/or non hook up spots at lower prices per day and night- and/or income based deals on longer pass deals or something similar. Federal access pass people would still need to prove an income need for a deal (although medical costs for them tend to be tons higher)---those are my concerns- not for me, but those that I know that barely get in now. - Marie
