My name is Nick and I use both day passes
And camping passes equally, (about 6 times a year at least. And one thing I know extensively,
Is that the $5 daily fees for everyone keeps alot of troublesome/belligerent people out of the parks just on the principle of (if you want to play, you gotta pay) and it works great so far.
(Because the places you don't have fees are run down, dirty, and disrespected.)
The idea of charging one set of people and not another set of people is a disgusting idea that leaves one set of people angry and feeling
Like there's some prejudice going on here,
(Not to mention, they'd rather turn around and not use/enjoy the parks.)
Also your plan is not particularly beneficial to all who want to enjoy the parks. What you're trying to do is let day use people off the hook,
And make us campers pay the difference.
That's upsetting to me.
If I may make a suggestion, I think we need to bump up all fees for everyone, not make others pay the difference,
and not one certain set of users gets unequal treatment...
Come on guys, a little bit of respect and concideration goes along way.
