Re: Fairness and equality not present in NM State Parks proposal

Dear Public Comment,

The increased fees and new fees will make activities like camping, boating, and paddle sports unaffordable for many New Mexicans, especially considering recent inflation. It is especially burdensome for low and middle-income families and senior citizens on fixed incomes. I respectfully request that you do not approve the proposed rule changes, go back and include the people you will affect instead of relying on a biased study to affirm your desired outcome.

Sincerely,
Mr. Will Steinberg
